

Date: Link to Project 1:
How did you feel coding today; did you come across any issues?
Would you like your instructor/program manager to know anything about your work today?

Project Requirements (1 point for each requirement included)
Points	Requirement
	Includes a photo of yourself on the page.*
	Has a clear website header and explanation of the page.
	Includes biography of yourself on the page (at least 5 sentences in length)
	Includes four interesting facts about yourself in a list (Additional points if images are used here)
	A quick resume about yourself that includes at least 5 different categories (Our example had three) - Using a table .
	Includes an image of the role model you have and a quote said by that individual. Your quote should link to the website you found it or any website that has information on your selected individual.
	At least three HTML tags used MUST be styled in some way using CSS.
	Includes the use of at least 2 classes. (Meaning at least 2 classes are created and selected/styled in CSS)
	Uses one class more than once.
Technical Skills Mastery (1-3 point for each requirement included)
Points	1 point Not included	2 points Some errors	3 points Effectively included
	Correctly structures their HTML boilerplate
	Correctly creates at least 1 of each of the following tags: <h1> - <h6> ,  , <img> ,

	Correctly creates at least 1 table (Quick Resume)
	Correctly creates at least 1 list (Ordered or Unordered)
	Use multiple class attributes on at least one of your HTML elements.
	Class selectors are used appropriately in CSS
	Class attributes are used appropriately in HTML
	All links ( tags) work how they are supposed to.
	Images are sized accordingly and correctly.
Code Cleanliness (1-3 points depending on cleanliness of code)
Points	1 point	2 points	3 points
	Code is hard to read and disorganized. Does not make use of indenting and spacing.	Code is somewhat neat with inconsistent indenting and spacing.	Code is very neat, easy to read and makes use of indenting and spacing.
Independent Problem Solving (1-3 points depending on ability to independently problem solve)
Points	1 point	2 points	3 points
	Unable to independently use tools like Google or the reference table to complete the project. Requires lots of help from teachers and peers.	Completes some tasks independently using Google or the reference table. Requires help from peers and teachers most of the time.	Effectively uses tools like Google and reference table to completes all tasks independently without relying on support from teachers or peers.
Expansion Pack
Total Points (Out of 42 Points)
	Teacher comments:		